REGULATIONS

- Rabies vaccinations are required for all pets 4 months and older. Only vaccinations given by a licensed veterinarian are accepted.
- Pet licenses are required for animals staying at a residence more than 30 days. Licenses are valid for 1 year from date of issue. Tag must be worn, and license and vaccination records kept by owner.
- All animals must be restrained on the owner's property or under control of leash or lead at all times.
- Only 6 small animals permitted per residence, 2 of which may be dogs. ONLY TWO DOGS PER RESIDENCE.
- Dogs must not bark, whine, or howl so that they disturb any person or neighbourhood.
- Any animal that bites hard enough to break the skin must be quarantined 10 days for observation. All bites must be reported.
- Female pets in heat must be enclosed so that the male pets are not attracted and so that neither sex becomes public nuisance.
- Stray animals must be turned over to the shelter to give owners the best chance to locate them. Animals not claimed are ut up for adoption. Adoption fees are waived for the finder if they would like to reclaim the animal.
- A valid license from another agency may be transferred to a Sandy City License for $1.00
